

Day 11

Objective: To gather victim information using CamPhish in a controlled environment.

Work Description: A demonstration was conducted showing how CamPhish captures information such as IP address, browser details, and approximate location after a user interacts with a phishing link. User permission and ethical boundaries were emphasized. The captured data was analyzed to understand how attackers collect reconnaissance information.

Outcome: Observed real-time information gathering through phishing.