

Day 18

Objective: To understand the PhoneSploit tool and mobile exploitation awareness.

Work Description: PhoneSploit was introduced to demonstrate risks related to Android devices when USB debugging is enabled. The trainer explained how attackers misuse insecure device configurations to access data. The PhoneSploit interface and basic working were demonstrated strictly for educational purposes. This session highlighted the importance of securing mobile devices and disabling unnecessary permissions.

Outcome: Learned risks associated with insecure mobile configurations.