

Day 7

Objective: To install and configure Kali Linux for phishing-related practical labs.

Work Description: Kali Linux was installed using VirtualBox to create a secure testing environment. The trainer explained why virtualization is used for ethical hacking and phishing simulations. Basic system configuration and terminal usage were demonstrated. Students were guided to ensure proper setup for running phishing tools safely without affecting the host system.

Outcome: Successfully prepared lab environment for phishing experiments.