

Day 6

Objective: To understand defensive layers against social engineering attacks.

Work Description: This session focused on defensive strategies to prevent phishing attacks. The trainer explained defense-in-depth concepts including user awareness training, strong authentication, email filtering, access controls, and incident response. The importance of multi-factor authentication (MFA) and security policies was discussed. Practical examples showed how layered defenses reduce phishing success rates.

Outcome: Learned effective preventive measures against phishing attacks.